One of the most useful as well as the most handsome weekly papers that comes to our sanctum is the AMERICAN LAND AND LAW ADVISOR, published at Pittsburgh, Pa., by Messrs. Croft & Phillips. It is a PAPER FOR THE MASSES, and should be taken by every business man, mechanic, land owner, or Magazine for cuttures homes. A staga-zine always up to the advancing thought, social progress and spirit of the times. A Magazine in which the lighter litera-ture of the period is made the vehicle of pure and noble zentiment.

A staga-business man, mechanic, land owner, or those about to build, or purchase any kind of property. It gives you all your Legal device Free, original Designs for cotages, givelling houses, suburban and country residwelling houses, suburban and country residences, and a vast fund of practical information such as is found in no other paper in the world. We find the following law questions—submitted to the paper by subscribers PRINTING -answered fully, INTELLIGENTLY, and very satisfactorily in a recent issue. This feature is alone worth to every subscriber TEX TIMES the subscription price:

Can a husband, who may be a justice, take the acknowledgement of his wife?

(H. T.)
Where A gives to B., his son, a farm for his natural life, and at his death to go to his he rs. &c., what claim has B's widow on the farm after B's death? (A Subscriber.)
Where one farmer agree! to cut with a machine a field for another, and was prevented from finishing the same for a whole week by reason of continuous.

whole week by reason of continious a whole wee's by reason of continious heavy rains, in consequence of which the whole field was lost; how far is he responsible for the loss? (J. F. C.) In Ohio, when has county Auditor the right to demand from delinquent tax payers (by reasons of claiming that the tax is levied on bona fide debts) the names of creditors, &c? [A Subscri-ber]

Can a surety on a bond, which turns out to hold him to differerent obligations from what he understood and intended at time of signing; avoid the bond? [Deceived.]

Where a woman, being engaged to be married, obtained a deed from her betrothed, based on the marriage con-tract, and then refuses to marry him; what redress has the mas? [Inquiry ] What redress has a father "gainst the keeper of a "public den" for the rain of his two sons? [J. R.]

In addition to all of the above, the publishers give to every yearly subscriber a beautiful oil chrome, "The Lost Bare," fully worth $5.00 :- all for $2.50. We would advise all our readers to subscribe for the Apvison, as they will find it the most profitable newspaper investment they ever made. Send two stamps for sample copy.
